SUBJECT: UGANDA: URGENT DEMARCHE ON THE GOLDSTONE REPORT

REF: SECSTATE 106423

(SBU) Poloff relayed recent Goldstone Report developments and associated U.S. concerns (reftel) to Ministry of Foreign Affairs Multilateral Affairs Officer Issac Sebulime on October 14. Mr. Sebulime had just returned from Uganda's Mission to the United Nations in New York and was aware that the Security Council's monthly Middle East meeting had been moved up to October 14. Sebulime said that Uganda would not support a discussion of the report at the meeting and stated that members of the Security Council were not yet prepared to discuss the lengthy report. Poloff informed Sebulime of the U.S. government's concern over the planned October 15-16 special session of the HRC, and conveyed U.S. support for deferring debate on the report until March, as was agreed during the fall HRC session.
